4. A Resolution was received from the session of the Milner Memorial Church, Raleigh, which was adopted:

RETIREMENT RESOLUTION

The Reverend William Robert Smith, III
Orange Presbytery, North Carolina

William Robert Smith, III was born in Richmond, Virginia, January 19, 1923 as his father was completing his studies at the Union Theological Seminary. As Bill grew in a home nurtured by Christian love and in the example of dedication to Christ as shown by his father, he became aware of his own call to serve the Lord. Answering the call of God, he completed his Bachelor of Arts degree at Davidson College and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Union Theological Seminary. He was ordained in October, 1947, in the Winston-Salem Presbytery.

While attending Seminary Bill met Miss Helen Hayes. This Miss Hayes was not the famous actress but was a sincere and talented young woman studying for her Master's Degree at the Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond. They were married in 1946 and at that time made a commitment to build a home together in which devotion to Christ and His love would always be the guiding light. The fact that they were successful is witnessed by the love Bill and his "bride" share daily and through the nurture of two fine children, Nancy and David. Nancy has just returned to Raleigh from Germany where she was teaching courses to U. S. service personnel and David is in his third year at Union Theological Seminary preparing to be the third generation Presbyterian Minister from the Smith family. Helen Smith is currently the Chairman of the Department of Religion at St. Mary's College.

Bill began his own ministry as the pastor of the Yadkinsville Church in Yadkinville, North Carolina. From there the Lord's call led him through a number of pastorates including the Buchanan Presbyterian Buchanan, Virginia, the Mars Hill Presbyterian Church in Athens, Tennessee, and Eastminister Presbyterian Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. In each Bill Smith gave unselfishly to the work that had to be done and in each Bill grew and matured in his ministry.

In January, 1965 Milner Memorial Presbyterian Church issued a call to Bill to apply his experience and maturity to help a church in desperate need of spiritual healing and Christian leadership. Bill proved to be equal to the task as he moved quickly to bring the mission of Milner back into focus and help its congregation rededicate itself to the teachings of Christ. But Bill was not through. He wanted the church to look outside itself and use its resources where they were needed, and through his leadership Milner Church responded.

Not only were the internal wounds healed, but the church was able to eliminate all indebtedness and opened its doors to a community ministry through the Alcoholic Anonymous program, the Boy and Girl Scouts, and housing the officers of the Specialized Services for Retarded Citizens.

As if to give example for the rededication, Bill has given many hours of service to numerous civic and religious organizations beginning with the Christian Education and Stewardship Committees responsible for starting the Knoxville Presbytery Camp when he was in Tennessee and more recently, as Vice-Chairman of the Calls and Vacancies Committee in Orange Presbytery. He has worked with the East Raleigh Ministerial Association, the Wake and Rex Hospitals Chaplaincy Program, the Presbyterian Urban Council of Raleigh and the North Carolina Counseling Services. His service continues as he assumes responsibilities as Moderator of Orange Presbytery for 1978.

Bill has given thirty years to the ministry of God, thirteen of those years to Milner Church. During that time he has baptized, married, and even buried many friends; he has preached countless sermons, has counseled disturbed and bereaved parishoners, interrupted many vacations and, in short, has unselfishly set aside every aspect of his personal life to serve his fellow man. If asked, he would tell you that this is simply what God wanted him to do.

Today we give thanks to God for the rich and varied contribution that Bill and Helen have given to our church. We rejoice, also, that they will be living among us after Bill's honorable retirement is given by Presbytery effective January 31, 1978. At this time we ask that by a rising vote this Presbytery express profound gratitude to Bill and Helen and to God and that this resolution be printed in the minutes of Presbytery and copies be sent to the churches he has served and to his two children, Nancy and David.

5. Joseph Mullin presented a gavel to the retiring Moderator, W. Owen Cooke in appreciation for the service to the Presbytery throughout the years.
6. Overtures from the Committee on Women's Concerns and the Glenwood Presbyterian Church were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures (when appointed).

> The Session of the Glenwood Presbyterian Church, upon the basis of the above study and others done by those faithful to the authority of the Word of God over the reason of man, respectfully moved to enact the following:
> 1. a. Record its agreement with the Holy Scriptures that homosexual practice is wrong and sinful.
>   b. Express its pastoral concern and love for homosexual persons.
>   c. Express its desire to see that homosexuals are not mistreated by the church or society, but are ministered to (by the efforts and resources of the church) that their wrong practice be corrected, that they be rehabilitated as other wrong-doers in our society, that they take their full place in society and enjoy the >   d. Express its support for Anita Bryant in her campaign in Miami, Florida to end such sinful influence upon the lives of young children.
>   e. Express the above opinion with its corresponding study to the Florida Citrus Commission, Orlando, Florida.

2. Urge other Sessions to make a similar study, searching for the direction of the Holy Spirit.

3. Overture the Presbytery of Orange to take a similar stand as that expressed in Number 1.

4. Overture the Presbytery of Orange to, in turn, overture the 1978 General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to take a similar stand.

5. Express its willingness to begin a fund for the rehabilitation of homosexuals within the boundaries of Orange Presbytery, with a donation of $100.00 to be used only for that purpose.

Moderator: Zolton Phillips

Clerk of Session: Elizabeth Ferguson

September 18, 1977

WHEREAS, there is a need for consistency in the usage of inclusive language throughout the Book of Church Order,

THEREFORE, the Presbytery of Orange overtures the 118th General Assembly to instruct the Stated Clerk to edit the Book of Church Order so as to assure that inclusive language will be used consistently throughout the Book. This will be accomplished at the next printing of the Book of Church Order or no later than 1983.

MEMORIAL - ROBERT COCHRAN

A Memorial was prepared and presented by Norman MacDowell who also voiced prayer for the ministry of Robert Cochran. Action was taken to print this Memorial in the minutes and forward a copy to the family of Robert Cochran.

God grants to every person life, time and the opportunity to fulfill through commitment to Jesus Christ and the guidance of His Holy Spirit a purpose - His great design for life here and hereafter. Robert McClellan Cochran was born in Huntersville, North Carolina on February 18, 1900, the son of the Reverend and Mrs. John Brice Cochran.

After receiving his degrees from Davidson College and a BD from Louisville Seminary, he began his ministry being ordained by Lexington Presbytery on July 24, 1926.

Robert married Ann Pettigrew and they were blessed with a son, Robert McClellan Cochran, Jr.

The tapesty of their life was woven for effective ministry. After serving churches in North Carolina, Kentucky, and Tennessee, Robert asked to be divested without censure and for twenty years was in business, but re-entered the ministry in 1953 in Nashville Presbytery and served churches in North Carolina, Florida and Georgia before coming to the Oxford group of churches in 1961.

While serving the churches he endeared himself to God's people through effective preaching and counselling and guiding of their life as the body of Christ. Robert gave himself faithfully to the proclamation of the Word. He was a concerned and committed presbyter. He expressed a creative sense of beauty in sharing his ceramic works with many. The beautiful manger scene displayed each year in the Presbytery Office was his work.

After thirteen years of active ministries with Geneva, Goshen, Oak Hill, Hebron and Grassy Creek churches, he was retired by Orange Presbytery on January 1, 1974. His ministry was slowed but the people's love for him and the effectiveness of a faithful ministry moved him always to help answer the needs brought to him by a grateful people. During his later years a heart condition impaired his physical activity and finally brought death on January 14, 1978.

Robert McClellan Cochran is remembered as a brother in Christ and a servant of his Lord and ours. He was a faithful channel of God's grace to many.

REPORT OF DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

Robert Fields, chairman, presented the report of the Division of Education and Mission.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. The Division of Education and Mission recommends that Orange Presbytery record our appreciation for the long and faithful ministries of Jack and Annie Davidson and that John Mack Walker, Jr. be granted the privilege of the floor to verbally state our appreciation.

2. The Division of Education and Mission recommends that Orange Presbytery hear Gray Clark for the presentation of the Division's Camp Use Committee's report.

The Camp Use Task Force has been meeting for over a year now to evaluate and plan a more effective camping ministry for Orange Presbytery. We have made several personal interviews with camp staff, members of presbytery, and camp users. We have surveyed congregations and church sessions. We have employed an accountant to do a cost analysis.

We feel that we have exhausted every avenue of study and have included: The concept and theology of our camping program, program development, disposition of property, staff and administration, financial management, and capital improvements.

Theologically, we have come to the following conclusions, believing that our camping program must reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ to a region that is becoming more urban. We must witness to the continuing saving activity of Christ in our lives. We also recognize that the context of the natural environment is truly the context of creation. We are stewards of this creation and within this context we acknowledge that our camping ministry is to provide retreat, renewal, witness and education to God's people.

It is from this basis that we present the following recommendations to Orange Presbytery:

I. Programming

We recommend that Orange Presbytery, through the Education and Mission Division, develop programs that minister to: problems, issues and ideas; church leadership development and support; large getherings; church professionals development; and children's and youth's summer camping.

II. Disposition of Properties

We recommend that both Camp New Hope and Presbyterian Point be retained and used accordingly.

III. Staff and Administration

(1) We recommend that a Director of Programs be called. This person would be responsible to the General Presbyter and the Education and Mission Division.
(2) We recommend that a resident Camp Manager be employed for Presbyterian Point and Camp New Hope.
(3) We recommend that oversight of Orange Presbytery's camping ministry be the duty of the Education and Mission Division and that a Programs and Camping Committee be selected by this Division for such purposes.
(4) We recommend that a Camp Property Committee be appointed as a subcommittee of the Programs and Camping Committee.

IV. Financial Managment

We recommend that both of the camp facilities be operated on the principle of a balanced budget and that the cost of such facilities be recovered through the fees charged. The Director of Programs' salary and major capital improvements will be excluded from this budget.

We also recommend such changes as are necessary to implement such principles including:

(1) A fee schedule based on a cost recovery principle.

(2) A deposit based on the rate of 15% of facilities/services reserved.

(3) Deposits are not eligible for refund within 60 days of the reserved date unless comparable reservations can be arranged with another group. Reservations are made or cancelled only by written notice.

(4) Subsidy may be made of specific programs by the division of Presbytery that sponsors such an event.

(5) Registrant will be charged for all meals and services for which have been contracted.

(6) Excessive damage will be charged by the group responsible. The Camp Manager will determine such costs and the Education and Mission Division will collect these costs from the registrants.

(7) Reservations will be taken on a first come basis, with the exception of summer camping programs conducted by presbytery.

(8) Records will be maintained at each facility in a manner that reflects the foregoing changes and sound financial management.

V. Capital Improvements

We firmly believe that certain capital improvements will be necessary in the coming years in order to maintain the value and usefulness of these properties, more specifically, a retreat center is needed at Camp New Hope and a residence for the Camp Manager is needed at Presbyterian Point.

However, because of the tenuous nature of the leadership in the Education and Mission Division, we feel that such a major undertaking would be conducted best after a General Presbyter has been called.

The Presbytery adopted the report of the Camp Use Committee as a whole.

4. A resolution from the session of the New Hope Presbyterian Church, Willow Spring, N. C. regarding the Reverend Cecil C. Callis was adopted:

The Session of New Hope Presbyterian Chuch of Willow Springs, North Carolina expresses to God our sincere gratitude for the life and work of the Rev. Mr. Cecil Clarence Callis, a son of this church.

Cecil Callis was born in Willow Springs on May 13, 1923, the son of Mr. James Royal Callis, Sr. and Mrs. Mamie Parham Callis. Cecil united with the Willow Springs Presbyterain Church (which later merged into New Hope Presbyterian Church) during his early youth, and was active in the attendance and work of the church. Mrs. J. R. Callis, Sr., his mother, is the oldest active member of New Hope Church. Cecil's family has been active in the life and work of the church: Mr. James R. Callis, Sr. served as Deacon from 1919 until his death in 1946; five brothers have served too as Deacons, and two brothers and a brother-in-law have been Ruling Elders.

Julia Sullivan and Cecil Callis were united in marriage on August 30, 1946. God has blessed their home with three lovely daughters: Julia Cecile, Mary Robin, and Christy Sullivan.

Cecil Callis graduated from Presbyterian Junior College in 1942, then from Presbyterian College in 1944, and from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Viriginia in 1947.

The Rev. Mr. Cecil Clarence Callis was ordained by Winston-Salem Presbytery on May 4, 1947.

Cecil Callis has served all of his ministry in the Synods of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, serving in North Carolina for 21 of the 31 years he has served in the ministry. His first pastorate was in Jefferson, North Carolina from 1947 until 1949. Cecil then served in Covington, Virginia from 1949 until 1952. Cecil returned to North Carolina, to Orange Presbytery, and served as Pastor of the Bethesda and Yanceyville Churches from 1952 to 1958. Cecil answered the call of the Easley, South Carolina Presbyterian-Church from 1958 to 1965. God led Cecil back to Orange Presbytery in 1965 to organize and become the first pastor of the Church of the Redeemer in High Point, North Carolina, which he served until 1969. Cecil then pioneered the Tent-making Ministry in Orange Presbytery. He served as the Stated Supply of the Springwood Presbyterian Church of Whitsett while working as a Nurseryman from 1969 until his retirement from the ministry of the Gospel on May 31, 1978.

The Session of New Hope Presbyterian Church thanks God for the life and ministry of His servant, Cecil Clarence Callis. We continue to pray for God's richest blessings upon Cecil in his retirement. We know that he will continue to witness to the Good News of the Gospel and to serve His Lord in His retirement as he has in his active Ministry of the Gospel.

MEMORIAL - IRA HOLMES RAWLES

A resolution was adopted that the memorial to Mr. Rawles be printed in the official minutes of the court and forwarded to Mrs. Lois Rawles.

Ira Holmes Rawles was born on September 30, 1910 in Sarasota, Florida and served his Master in His Church throughout the years of his life. He was ordained to the Gospel Ministry by Holston Presbytery on March 21, 1939.

A graduate of King College, Bristol, Tennessee and Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, Ira Rawles proved himself a careful student and expositor of Scripture. He served his entire ministry in churches in North Carolina except during the Second World War when he served as a chaplain in the United States Navy.

On August 23, 1938 Ira Rawles married Annie Lois McLelland of Statesville, North Carolina. To this union was born four children, David McLelland, deceased, Edward Mack, deceased, Sarah Ann (Mrs. Virgil Tracy), Lucama, North Carolina, and Susan Elizabeth (Mrs. J. Michael Morton),Greensboro, North Carolina. Mrs Rawles and the two daughters survive, having been loyal supporters and allies in his faithful ministry. Ira Rawles is also survived by his mother, Ethel Hart Rawles, Sarasota, Florida, and four granddaughters.

Ira Rawles' last pastorate brought him into Orange Presbytery as minister of the Spring Hill and Westminster Churches at Lucama, North Carolina. He served these churches faithfully from 1969 until his health forced him to retire at the close of 1975.

Since God in His wise Providence saw fit to call His Servant Ira Holmes Rawles from this world to a higher and better one on May 24, 1978, be it hereby resolved:

That the Presbytery of Orange give thanks to Almighty God for the personal and unselfish service of this servant of the Master;

COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES

Haywood Holderness presented the following persons to be received as candidates for the Gospel Ministry under the care of Orange Presbytery: Marie Buffaloe, Jean Rodenbaugh and David Smith. The moderator conducted the examination on their Christian experience and each person read a statement regarding the experience and motives for seeking the Ministry of the Word, which was sustained, and propounded the constitutional questions which were answered in the affirmative. Presbytery was led in prayer by Harold Waldruff. John Danhof charged the candidates and the moderator declared them acknowledged and received as a Candidate for the Ministry of the Word and directed their names to be recorded on Presbytery's Roll of Candidates for the Ministry. The right hand of Christian Fellowship was extended to all and the proceedings were closed. This was a special privilege for the moderator, William R. Smith, III as his son, David, was received as a candidate. Neil Bain led the court in a litany, and a hymn, He then pronounced the benediction.

Having intensely examined the credentials, references, academic records, experiences of call and grace, and the individual's future usefulness as ministers; and having personally interviewed the following persons, the Candidates' Committee recommends that the following be received as Candidates for the ministry by Orange Presbytery:

a . Marie Buffaloe, Ernest Myatt, 22, single, St. Andrew's, B.A., will enter UTS this summer for "Baby Greek" and continue her seminary education there.

b . Jean Rodenbaugh, Madison, 44, married with four children, Randolph Macon, B.A., UNC-G, M.A., rising 2nd level student at Duke Divinity School, an ordained Deacon and former WOC President at the Madison Church.

c . David Smith, Milner Memorial, 26, single, St. Andrew's, B.A., rising senior at UTS, just completed intern year at First Presbyterian Church, Kings Mountain, N. C.

In accordance with Presbytery Policy, the committee reports the reason that Ms. Rodenbaugh has chosen to attend Duke rather than a PCUS Seminary: Duke is within commuting distance of her home. If she were to attend a PCUS Seminary, she would have to leave her family and family responsibilities and this would be an unusual hardship for her.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the above changes in terms of call be approved effective January 1, 1978.

E. To Be Ordained

1. That Fran Phillips be ordained to further study pending her successful examination and her signing the ministerial obligation.

F. Whereas the permission for an ordained minister to move on to the field is ordinarily granted by the court of Presbytery, we recognize that this may on some occasions be inconvenient for both minister and church.

Therefore, we recommend that the Commission on the Minister, and only the Commission, be vested with the authority to grant permission to move on to the field in circumstances where it seems appropriate.

II. Actions

A. Upon the request of the pastor and the concurrence of the congregation, the pastoral relationship between W. T. Perkins and the Westview Presbyterian Church, Burlington, was dissolved, effective July 2, 1978. The pulpit was declared open and Warren Brannon was appointed moderator of the Session.

B. Upon the request of the pastor and the concurrence of the congregation, the pastoral relationship between Ralph Teasley and the Cary Presbyterian Church was dissolved, effective April 30, 1978. The pulpit was declared open and David Wiseman was appointed moderator of the Session.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH

Edna Bell, President of the Women of the Church, presented the report as written in the Orange Book.

The Women of the Church, Orange Presbytery held their Eighty-first Annual Meeting on April 5 and 6 at Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church, Durham, with attendance of 567. Mrs. Harold (Mae) Minnich, Black Mountain, was guest speaker for both sessions.

Scholarships of $800 each were awarded to Patricia Ann Terry, Raleigh, Melissa Kay Moody, Mt. Vernon Springs, and Susan Louise Rowe, Raleigh, all repeaters and all students at UNC - Chapel Hill.

The offering objective was the Scholarship Fund of the Women of Orange, with a total of $596.15

Mrs. Paul C. Davis, Chairman, White Cross, gave an updated report on White Cross stating that $4,442.51 worth of supplies had been sent to Kwangu Hospital in Korea, and that 708 pounds of rolled bandages prepared by the Women of the Church, Orange Presbytery, and over 600 pounds of surgical supplies had been sent with a cost for shipping of $375.

Two Honorary Life Memberships were awarded by the Women of Orange to our own Ms. Joyce Bauer, and Ms. R. T. (Carol) Thomas.

In May, the Women of the Church celebrated their 56th Birthday. The 1978 offering objective was two-fold. One-half for Mexican-American Leaders and Ministers, and one-half for the St. Columbia Ministries.

We were invited by First Presbyterian Church, High Point, to meet with them for the 1979 Annual Meeting.

This report was adopted.

REPORT OF NORTHGATE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION

The report of the Northgate Administrative Commission was presented by Sam Burgess and was adopted:

The Northgate Administrative Commission has been continuing to meet regularly at least once each month. The meetings are held at the Church on Sunday afternoons after meetings of the following church committees:

(1) Strengthening the Church, (2) Commitment and Stewardship, (3) Witness and Service, (4) Worship and Fellowship, and (5) Property.

These committees were set up by the Commission in January. Each is chaired by a member of the congregation with a Commission member sitting in as advisor. Following its monthly meeting each committee makes a report of its work and recommendations to the Commission. In this way a full church program is continuing to be carried on even in the absence of a regular pastor and session.

The Commission is pleased with the fine spirit of cooperation and Christian love as well as the many evidences of healing and growth taking place such as: (1) good attendance at worship services, committee meetings and other church functions; (2) expressions of readiness for an interim pastor and a return to normalcy as soon as possible; (3) the raising of the church secretary's salary and the adoption of vacation and fringe benefits for her which correspond to that of Class II employees of Presbytery; and (4) the inauguration of a thirteen-week tithing program to increase pledges and income. The Commission is also pleased to make the following recommendations:

1. That Presbytery call the Reverend Victor Scott as an evangelist and assign him to labor in the Northgate Church for a period of one year (Book of Church Order 10-6), beginning July 1, with the Northgate Administrative Commission continuing to govern the church until such time as it thinks the church is ready for the Session to be reconstituted and a regular pastor called and both of these actions have been effected.

2. That the Northgate Administrative Commission be empowered to extend the services of the Reverend Victor Scott beyond one year if this seems advisable.

3. That the Presbytery go on record as expressing its gratitude to the Reverend Sam Wiley for the excellent job he has done filling the pulpit and performing other pastoral functions during the period preceeding the arrival of the Reverend Victor Scott.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY CULTS

John Danhof reported on the work of the committee to study Cults and the recommendation was adopted:

Report of Cult Study:

The special committee appointed by Orange Presbytery to study cults has been at work planning its tasks, interviewing representatives and conducting research into the literature of the Unification Church.

At the same time, interest in other parts of the General Assembly of the P.C.U.S. has stimulated overtures and requests asking the Council on Theology and Culture of the General Assembly to undertake studies similar to our own. The council is supportive of the work of the committee of Orange Presbytery and hopes to incorporate its work into that of its own assignment.

The net result of this cooperative effort is that our committee now is working on behalf not only of Orange Presbytery but of the Council on Theology and Culture of the General Assembly. This both extends and broadens our tasks and will eventually result in comprehensive and evaluative studies covering a considerable number of cults and some para-church groups as well.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

That the special committee of Orange Presbytery to study cults be granted permission to work with the Council of Theology and Culture of the General Assembly and that this cooperative effort be recognized as fulfilling the task originally assigned to the committee.

4. An Overture was received from the Session of the Western Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Raleigh and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures by the Moderator:

OVERTURE BY THE SESSION
WESTERN BOULEVARD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
TO
THE PRESBYTERY OF ORANGE

WHEREAS it is good for the church to gather at Montreat on special occasions and the Youth Conference is of the highest caliber, leadership is the best and benefits are high for those attending

WHEREAS it is recognized that inflation necessitates an increase in cost for all conferences in Montreat

WHEREAS the average cost of a Conferee attending the Youth Conference in Montreat in 1978 was $125.00, not including cost for transportation and spending money, i.e., $33 Registration Fee; $48 average lodging; $44 food

WHEREAS this amount seems to be excessive and tends to eliminate all young people except the affluent and makes it difficult for the church to promote the conferences

WHEREAS it has come to our attention that parents, young people, youth advisors, the Strengthening Committee and others are concerned about the spiralling cost of conferences at the General Assembly Center at Montreat.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Session of Western Boulevard Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, N. C. overtures The Presbytery of Orange to concur in its requests that a complete study of the problem be made by the appropriate agency of The General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, U. S. and that a report be made to the churches including an accounting of how the "Registration Fees" of the 1978 Youth Conferences were expended and to explore ways of reducing the cost of all conferences held at Montreat General Assembly grounds.

Session Meeting - September 17, 1978
Edgar D. Byers, Moderator

J. Melson Pittman, Jr.

Action was taken that these Memorials be adopted and printed in the official minutes of the court and that copies be sent to the families of each minister.

MARION STRANGE HUSKE

Marion Strange Huske was born January 1, 1889 in Fayetteville, N. C. and was educated at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C., Davidson College where he received a B. S. degree in 1911, and Union Theological Seminary, Richmond Va. He graduated there in 1915 with a B. D. degree. He then was ordained to the ministry by Norfolk Presbytery July 18, 1915. He served two years in Virginia and one year at Wilmington, North Carolina. His subsequent call as a Missionary to Brazil was abandoned because of poor health after two years of service. On his return to the United States, he served two years as pastor in Black Mountain, N. C. before he came to Reidsville.

He was unanimously called as pastor of the Reidsville Presbyterian Church on November 8, 1921, succeeding Dr. D. D. Craig. He was installed as pastor on Jan. 15, 1922 and served with fidelity as pastor until 1954. Then he served Westminster Church in Greensboro five years before moving to Charlotte in 1959.

When he came to Reidsville in 1921 the Reidsville Church was under construction and had 160 members. The small congregation paid off a $45,000 debt and grew steadily to a membership of 600 when he left in 1954. In 1935 construction of the Boyd Memorial Annex approximately doubled the church's facilities. In 1942 the remodeled North wing of the church greatly increased the church plant. He completely reorganized the Sunday School along departmental lines.

He started an aggressive program of Evangelism and challenged the young people to continuous Christian Service. The Reverend Carl B. Craig was the only candidate for the ministry from the Reidsville Church who had volunteered before Mr. Huske became pastor. The Reverend Marion Strange Huske, Moderator of the Synod of North Carolina didn't attempt to pinpoint the reasons why a person goes into full-time church work, but he, in large measure, was responsible for circumstances which have come about in the 32 years of his ministry in Reidsville. He was a man with great influence and was the first to say God used different instruments to call such a fruited number from Reidsville into full time church work. During the ministry of Mr. Huske in Reidsville the following entered Christian services: Reverends Price H. Gwyu, Jr., Carl B. Pritchett, Elmer Nichols, Roger Rice, Jr., Charles R. Oliver, Donald Trent, Thomas Barker, Hugh R. Montgomery, W. W. Marshall, Jr., Van Joines. The following lay leaders committed themselves to full time church work during Mr. Huske's ministry: Anna M. Pritchett, Wanda J. Beckner, Mary Lou M. Oliver, Betty Ruth Barker, Shirley Thornton.

The transmissions of these Reidsville influences continue to multiply and more people in many places, because of these 15 committments under Mr. Huske, go into full-time church work. Many serve important positions in the Presbyterian Church.

During his entire ministry the cause of Missions was emphasized and support given to several Missionaries. The church had to meet large debts for building purposes but the benevolent gifts were always large. The growth of the church has shown in spiritual as well as physical construction. His influence in the 32 years as pastor in Reidsville stands as an enduring Christian monument in the community. He was pastor not only of his church but was pastor of the community as well, especially to people in trouble. He had friends in all walks of life - a devoted consecrated man of God. He was a Rotarian and active in all the civic life of the community.

The first vacation Bible School in the county was organized during his ministry. He also encouraged the Scout movement. There were three girl Scout Troops and a boy Scout troop as well as a Cub Pack meeting at the church during the early 1930's.

The Reidsville Review in 1947 commented on the ministry of Marion Huske as follows: "Mr. Huske is now dean of the clergy in this city. He is truly regarded as a leader in his beloved community. With high ideals, sound principles, untiring Huske completes 25 years as a consecrated man of God." The occasion was the 25th anniversary of Mr. Huske's pastorate, the 72nd anniversary of the Reidsville Church and a Homecoming.

Mr. Huske was the oldest minister in point of service of the Rockingham Community Ministerial Association and also of the Reidsville Ministerial Association. Of the active members of the Orange Presbytery his service had been the longest.

In 1949 the Hillview Church on Groome's Road was organized and built by the Reidsville Presbyterian Church under the wise leadership of the Reverend Huske and a consecrated group of laymen.

A new manse was built during his ministry in 1949. Mr. Huske visited Haiti and was appalled by the poverty and needs of the people. His concern for the healing ministry of Christ's Church led him to make a challenge gift to the Mission Board which enabled the Presbyterian Church to transform a dispensary operated by the Episcopal Church into a 29 bed hospital. Mr. Huske and daughter, Mrs. James Alexander of Charlotte, N. C. gave the money for a house for the Medical Missionary at the hospital as a memorial to Mr. Huske. Though retired, he continued as a servant of the Lord and was instrumental in the Church's missionary involvement in Haiti.

He was married to Elizabeth Cox Lord in 1925. They had one daughter, Eleanor Collins, and six grandchildren.

After Mrs. Huske's death in April, 1964, Mr. Huske was instrumental in the Reidsville Church's purchase of a home in Montreat. The house was dedicated as the Elizabeth Lord Huske house. He hoped it would encourage especially young people to go for church conferences.

He wrote a Centennial History of the Reidsville Presbyterian Church just before he died.

He died at the age of 88, July 18, 1977 at Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, N. C. Funeral services were held July 20, 1977, in the Reidsville Presbyterian Church with the Reverend Ed Brammer and the Reverend Reid Montgomery officiating. There had been a previous service in Charlotte at Harry and Bryant Funeral Home Chapel in the Oaks with the Reverend Ed Brammer and the Reverend Carl Pritchett officiating. Burial was in Greenview Cemetery in Reidsville, N. C.

How many homes and hearts he has sweetened and comforted only eternity can reveal.

MEMORIAL
WILLIAM CREED COOPER

W. Creed Cooper, who completed forty years in the ministry at Buffalo Presbyterian Church, Sanford, N. C. in 1969 and retired to the home in Montreat he had designed and largely built himself, spent almost a half century of his life in N. C.

Born December 27, 1900 in Chattanooga, Tennessee, his boyhood and youth was in Montgomery, Alabama, where his church-active family were related to the Presbyterians.

Graduating from Sidney Lanier High School, Montgomery, in 1921, he went to Auburn University for one year, gaining skills in construction and business that later contributed so much to his usefulness. The roommate of that year remained a loyal friend, keeping in touch and no doubt giving help and encouragement in building ventures in various churches through the years. This roommate became a successful construction engineer.

The Cooper family moved to the Atlanta area in 1922 and young Creed secured a position in the business office of the Southern Railway and during the next years completed an accounting and business education. He associated himself actively in the East Point, Georgia, Church, taking leadership in youth work, experience he fully used in after years.

As a result of correspondence with the Overseas Mission Agency of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., he offered to serve as an industrial and business missionary in Brazil. It was agreed that he attend Columbia Seminary for preparation, completing his courses in 1929.

Before that time and during the first summer of student ministry he took a frontier assignment at Red Deer, Alberta, Canada, with the Presbyterian Mission of that country. His accounts of his work there, especially the horseback riding to his isolated appointments were vividly told. The second summer before graduation from the Seminary was with Dr. Henry Wade Dubose at First Presbyterian Church, Spartanburg, largely in Youth Work but also in the Mission outreach.

The financial situation kept delaying his appointment to the foreign field, so he was led to "ask for as difficult a Home Mission group open for service as was available."

Ordained by Mecklenburg Presbytery, he took the Oakboro-Stanfield and Locust field. Early in this first pastorate he met, and later married Miss Ethel Vernon Staton and the churches they have served all witness to the inestimable help she has been to each one. Theirs has been a special ability in building, improving and beautifying churches and manses, and their home at Montreat.

His second pastorate (1936-1943) was at Mocksville where there are remembrances of dynamic leadership in all areas of service.

In 1943 Dr. W. W. Akers, the indomitable churchman of North Carolina, appealed to the Coopers to come to the Armstrong Memorial Presbyterian Church at Gastonia. They gave this Church impetus in lifting the sights of church and community to a new and worthy life. A tithing program was an outstanding blessing.

The new pastorate was that of succeeding Dr. J. C. Bailey at Ebenezer, Rock Hill, S. C. rendering distinctive service there and at Tirzah Presbyterian Church.

In 1951 through Columbia Seminary information was furnished a Texas Church about the qualifications of W. C. Cooper. The exploratory visit led to the family – there were two daughters, Clara and Mary Louise – moving to Coleman, Texas.

Meeting new opportunities to conduct special meetings in connection with his active ministry in Coleman, Creed strengthened his abilities in evangelistic preaching. He had always considered this a primary part of his work.

The pastorate that followed the one in Texas was at Arden, North Carolina. Finding the beginning of an extensive building program, Creed Cooper led these dedicated people in stewardship and personal involvement.

Ten years saw the completion of the Educational Building, the Manse and the Sanctuary. Here and in so much of the construction work of the churches that he completed, his business experience and knowledge of accounting procedures, resulted in notable economics. In all such activity, however, the pastoral and pulpit ministry was never neglected.

Moving to Buffalo Presbyterian Church, Sanford, North Carolina, in 1926, his final full-time pastorate was characterized by complete fulfillment. He and his wife used their skills and abilities, completely endearing themselves to the church and community.

Coming to Montreat in 1969 there was the joy of completing their home, foundation of which Creed Cooper had started in 1947. Landscaping the yard, they have made it a gem of nature's beauty. In addition great interest and much volunteer work has been given to make Montreat a beautiful and outstanding place to visit. Creed was closely identified with laying out and completing a unique Nature Trail adjoining Assembly Drive, across from their home.

As a citizen, also he gave of himself unsparingly as Treasurer of the Cottage Owners Association, putting the business affairs of the Association in a very favorable position for many projects.

As a good neighbor and alert churchman, he strengthened the Christian witness at all times.

After his retirement as an active minister, he continued to supply churches whenever called upon. In Savannah, Georgia, and at Spindale, Crossnore, and Riceville, North Carolina, there were extended periods of service, and Sunday pulpit supply.

Creed Cooper had an amazing capacity for friendship, ever drawing to himself in abiding love and affection those with whom he studied and worked. His quiet humor lightened many a moment for his friends and associates.

Dominated by a deep faith he moved stalwartly through the discoveries of hard physical problems during his final illness.

"This is a good day to go," he said before a short prayer he made on February 12, 1978.

Thus, this good man exchanged time for eternity.

THEOLOGICAL STATEMENT FOR NEW STRUCTURE

The primary goal of Orange Presbytery, like that of the church as a whole and in each of its parts, is to witness to the creating, saving and fulfilling acts of God in Jesus Christ, through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit.

Secondary goals are consistent with the primary goal and derive from it, for exploration, enabling, equipping and establishing forms and styles of ministry to, by, and through local congregations.

Ministry is defined as our participation in God's continuing action in Jesus Christ by His word and spirit, which determines our needs and awareness of them.

Lu Harvin, Jr. presented the Plan of Restructure as follows (amended):

A BENEDICTION Norman Whitney

The requirements of the Book of Church Order being met by each candidate, each candidate spoke of his/her experiences of Christian grace and sense of call to the ministry. The moderator asked the questions from the Book of Church Order which were answered in the affirmative. Action was then taken that these persons be enrolled as candidates under the care of Orange Presbytery prior to the benediction.

Action was taken that the remainder of the report of the Commission on the Minister be adopted. The report was adopted as a whole as follows:

E. Policy of the Commission on the Minister:

I. Recommendation:

To adopt the following policy for the guidance of candidates under the care of Orange Presbytery:

Candidates and Choice of Seminary

Proposed Policy for Use by Orange Presbytery

Introduction:

The intent of this document is twofold: 1) to propose a polity for determining which graduate theological institutions shall be judged suitable by Orange Presbytery for the instruction of its candidates for the ministry of the Word, and 2) to provide a rationale for the specific terms of this policy.

Part One:

The Candidates Committee of Orange Presbytery recommends to the Presbytery the adoption of the following policy which shall be promulgated to candidates for the Ministry of the Word:

Regarding the care of the candidate for the ministry of the Word, the attention of Presbytery is called to the Book of Church Order, paragraph 24-7, which states:

> "The Presbytery shall show a constant and personal interest in the Candidate and shall give counsel and guidance in regard to the Candidate's studies and practical training, and the institutions of learning the Candidate shall attend."

In compliance with this constitutional statement, Orange Presbytery directs its Candidates Committee to promulgate and implement the following policy.

a. It will be normative for candidates under care of Orange Presbytery to attend one of its denominational seminaries (Union of Richmond, Austin, Columbia or Louisville).

b. Candidates desiring to pursue an educational equivalency in another seminary shall present a rationale paper for this preference to the Candidates' Committee for its approval according to these criteria:
   1. The seminary must be a member of the AATS.
   2. The seminary must offer a course or courses which provide exposure to the essentials of Reformed theology and worship.
   3. The seminary must encourage the candidate's loyalty to and support of the PCUS.
   4. The seminary must be sufficiently acceptable within the PCUS to assure maximum possibility of the candidate's acceptance by other presbyteries.

Part Two (Rationale for the Specifications of this Policy)

The reasons for making attendance at PCUS seminaries normative are several:

a. Academically, they are of very high caliber.

b. Attendance at these institutions helps to build relationships and experiences that promote a candidate's identity with and loyalty to his/her denomination.

c. PCUS seminaries are most able to facilitate liaison with the candidate and his/her home presbytery regarding steps toward ordination. They are particularly better able to help prepare the candidate for ordination exams.

d. Often, PCUS seminaries are better able to assist the candidate in placement after graduation.

e. Financial aid for PCUS candidates is usually more readily available at PCUS seminaries.

Despite these factors which recommend attendance at a PCUS seminary, a candidate may have good reason for being excused from this requirement. For instance, due to a candidate's financial requirements, he/she may find it easier to attend a nearby non-PCUS seminary. Also, a non-PCUS institution may offer a course of study not available elsewhere which is attractive to a student who intends to pursue a degree beyond the M.Div. level.

The criteria for approval listed above are intended to provide flexibility with regard to practical considerations such as these, but they are also intended to allow for legitimate theological differences. Seminaries, as other institutions of learning, exhibit various ideological perspectives and methodological approaches. A candidate may want to request approval for his/her attendance at a non-PCUS institution on the grounds that it offers an approach which is more suitable to his/her personal educational needs.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER/DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Candidates' Committee maintains that seminary training should measure up to other forms of graduate education, which is to say that it should challenge the candidate to mature intellectually, to develop his or her own views by way of exposure to and dialogue with contrasting theological perspectives. Accordingly, leeway should be given to the student who sincerely believes that the only way to obtain this kind of education is to attend a non-PCUS seminary. However, if the student's purpose for wanting to attend a non-PCUS seminary is to avoid exposure to viewpoints which he/she finds unacceptable, then the Candidates' Committee feels that the student's request should be denied, because in this instance the student is not demonstrating a desire for the graduate education as defined above.

The Candidates' Committee feels that it is possible for a student to acquire satisfactory familiarity with PCUS polity by way of independent study. For this reason, the offering of a course in PCUS polity is not listed as a criterion for approval. This criterion, the committee feels, would rule out some very fine theological institutions which would otherwise be acceptable alternatives to PCUS seminaries. Obviously, however, the best way to learn PCUS polity is to attend a PCUS seminary.

E. Policy of the Commission on the Minister.

II. Recommendation:

That the initiative for the triennial review of ministry of congregations be with the sessions of churches. Individual sessions would inform the Commission on the Minister or the General Presbyter of Orange Presbytery regarding the review and evaluation, requesting assistance if desired, and furnishing the Commission on the Minister with a report.

III. Policy of the Commission on the Minister

That Orange Presbytery adopt the following guidelines for Presbyteries which were offered by the 118th General Assembly and, that the Commission on the Minister, the Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders and the Committee on Candidates be instructed to follow them as closely as possible:

a) When a candidate seeks to be ordained for work other than that obviously appropriate for a minister for the Word;

b) When a Minister of the Word seeks permission to enter some work other than that obviously commensurate with his or her ordination;

c) When the Minister of the Word of another denomination or holding membership in another presbytery who is laboring at some work other than that which is obviously appropriate seeks to be received into membership in that presbytery;

d) When a Commission on the Minister reviews the work of all the presbytery's ministers to determine if all are devoting themselves to their sacred calling;

(For the sake of brevity, the proposed or questioned work will be referred to simply as "the new work".)

1. The minister must demonstrate that the desire to enter the new work is a positive expression of firm personal faith and not a means to escape the responsibility of regularly articulating a faith no longer firmly believed;
2. The minister must be willing to have the nature of the new work placed under an annual or periodic review by the presbytery through its Commission on the Minister;
3. The minister must be free and willing to accept responsibility for part-time service in worship and work of the courts and the congregational life of the Church;
4. The minister must continue to be ready, willing and able to obey the vows of ordination and the employing agency must be willing to permit obedience to these vows;
5. The work must, in the judgement of presbytery, be consistent with the mission of the Church;

6. The minister must be able to affirm that he or she is seeking the new work out of motivation to interpret, apply, and communicate the Word of God in some form that can be understood and affirmed by the presbytery, and the new work should require such communication of the Word;
7. The presbytery must be convinced that good and sufficient reason exists at the given time for the work being done by a Minister of the Word;
8. Continued competency for the Minister of the Word should be listed or generally understood as at least one of the requirements for satisfactory performance of the new work;
9. There must be an identifiable body of persons in a position to evaluate the minister's effectiveness as a Minister of the Word in the new work.

II. Report of Actions:

A. Adopted the following policy regarding Examinations:

"The purpose of the Committee on Examinations is to examine the candidate/minister applying for reception by Presbytery and to assess the applicant's adequacy for the ministry of the Word and Sacraments. In performing this function, the Committee will focus on the applicant's practical application of theology, the Bible, sacrament, and polity as well as his/her knowledge (where applicable) and views in these areas. The Committee also has the responsibility for grading the Standard Ordination Examination. The Committee will then report to the Court its evaluation of the candidate's/minister's preparation and readiness to carry out the ministry of the Word and Sacraments."

B. Adopted the following policy regarding Calls to Pastors:

The Commission on the Minister intends that all calls for ministers include a provision whereby the actual cost of utilities is provided. Any specified dollar amount in the call to a pastor is to reflect an estimate only.

> Whereas, the Committee on Women's Concerns, the Women of the Church, and Women in Church Professions vitally need coordinated planning and execution on women's issues; and
> Whereas, the work of women at General Assembly level could possibly be coordinated to be far more effective and to be more economically feasible for our denomination,

Therefore, the Presbytery of Orange overtures the 119th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to appoint an Ad Interim Committee of six persons to study the structures and functions of the work of women at General Assembly level and to design a Plan for Coordination of the total work of the PCUS women which will represent all women and will insure equality and fairness for them in the PCUS while providing ample curricula, resources, conferences and other growth possibilities which may emerge from such a coordinated plan. MEMORIAL OF ERNEST L. BARBER

Ed Agsten introduced Mrs. E. L. Barber and daughter to the court. The memorial was presented to the court and prayer for the ministry of Mr. Barber was voiced. Action was taken that the memorial be adopted, included in the official minutes of the court and a copy sent to Mrs. E. L. Barber when printed.

MEMORIAL FOR ERNEST LOWRY BARBER

The Reverend Ernest Lowry Barber was born in York, South Carolina on November 18, 1892. On October 25, 1922 he was married to Louise Dendy of Seneca, South Carolina. There are two daughters, Mrs. J. W. McLaney, Jr. of Charlotte and Mrs. T. B. Haller of Pulaski, Virginia.

Mr. Barber held a BA degree from Presbyterian College of South Carolina and a BD degree from Columbia Seminary in Decatur, Georgia.

After ordination on July 16, 1922 by Atlanta Presbytery he held pastorates in Carrollton, Georgia and Bethesda Church in Aberdeen, N. C. Under his ministry Brownson Memorial Church of Southern Pines was organized and he became its first pastor. After serving as Superintendent of Home Missions of Savannah Presbytery he became pastor of the Hull Memorial Church of Savannah. For five years he was Executive Secretary of Southwest Georgia Presbytery. In 1953 he became the second Executive Secretary of Granville Presbytery, serving until his retirement on November 1, 1963. He died in Southern Pines after an extended illness on October 20, 1978 and his "Service of Resurrection" was held in the Brownson Memorial Church there, conducted by the pastor, the Reverend Hal E. Hyde, Jr.

Ernest Barber came to Granville Presbytery out of a rich background of preaching, pastoral and administrative ability. Under his ministry to us and to his Lord and church the presbytery was well organized, benevolent giving greatly increased, and an attractive and well written paper was published and several new churches were established.

Mr. Barber was of the "old school" and yet of the "new school", taking the best of both and combining them for the good of the church and the honor of his Lord. As a good administrator he believed in letting committees and/or groups work out their own plans yet wise enough to give real guidance where and when it was most needed. As someone once said, "When you would see Ernest Barber sitting quietly, smoking his pipe and listening in a meeting you knew something constructive was going on in his heart and mind and that something good was going to come forth from him." He was quiet and unassuming yet firm in asserting what he believed to be right.

With it all he was a very human person. He had a great sense of humor. He loved to fish and he loved his fishing companions. He was a social being, possessing many friends.

He loved his family, wife, Louise, daughters and their husbands and his grandchildren.

Ernest Barber loved his church, and by this we mean his denomination, his presbytery and the church universal. He had no patience with "nit picking" and destructive criticism. Orange Presbytery would be remiss if it failed to recognize that we should thank God for all he contributed to his church and in particular for all he meant in laying deep foundations upon which we are building today.

We can rest assured on the Word of our Lord that having "fought a good fight," and having "finished the course" and "kept the faith" that he now has inherited the "crown of righteousness." As it was said of Barnabas of old, he was "a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith."

People: But it is the same Spirit who gives them.

People: But it is the same Lord who is served.

People: But it is the same God who achieves his purpose through them all.
Leader: Each one is given a gift by the Spirit,
People: To use it for the common good.
Leader: Together we are the body of Christ,

RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING 1979 BUDGET

A. 1. That the 1979 Mission and Assessment Budget of Orange Presbytery be adopted as amended.

1979 BUDGET RECOMMENDATIONS

The following recommendations were adopted by the Council and by Presbytery:

B. 1. That the Presbytery allocate 30.56% of all undesignated dollars received from churches during 1979, along with assessments in the amount of $48,627 and all General Assembly special offerings as well as designated gifts to the General Assembly.

2. That the Presbytery allocate 20.77% of all undesignated dollars received from churches during 1979 along with assessments of $22,443 and all designated monies to the Synod of North Carolina. Special offerings at Synod level are sent directly to Barium Springs and Presbyterian Home upon disbursement from the Presbytery office.

3. That the Presbytery allocate 48.67% of all undesignated dollars received from churches in 1979, along with assessments in the amount of $18,703 and any designated offerings applying to the budget of this court, to the work of Orange Presbytery.

4. That the following SPECIAL OFFERINGS be authorized in 1979:

   a. The General Assembly has authorized the Mission Board to promote the Witness Season (January through March 1979) with a special Witness Season offering to be received through its member churches. This "special" offering is IN ADDITION to what support churches have committed in their benevolence acceptance to support certain missionaries or to the general support of missionaries.

   b. A special offering on Easter Sunday for the alleviation of World Suffering and Human Need, referred to as "Easter Offering". The Assembly has again authorized this offering with approximately 80% allocated to International Mission for our denomination's participation in Christian relief and rehabilitation work overseas, with 20% allocated to the G.A. Task Force on World Hunger to support programs attacking root causes of hunger and promoting development.

   c. A special offering for Presbyterian Home, High Point, on Mother's Day. This offering when distributed by the Presbytery is transmitted directly to the Home to provide its ministry to the aged.

   d. A special offering taken on the weekend of Thanksgiving to be distributed to Barium Springs Home for Children and their programs assisting broken homes, families with problems as well as the children. This offering is forwarded directly to the Home in Barium Springs.

5. That a supplemental (to the budget) JOY GIFT OFFERING for Ministerial Relief be observed during the Christmas Season and sent to the Office of Orange Presbytery prior to the date when the 1979 books close (on or about January 10). This offering provides assistance to our aged servants of the Church and their spouses when MAF/EAF was either not paid or is inadequate to provide minimum income.

6. That Church Treasurers are requested to please remit all funds due the Presbytery in regular monthly payments of 1/12 of annual budget and that checks be made payable to Orange Presbytery and sent to Box 2874, Durham, N.C., 27705, and that care be taken to insure all designated gifts be specified in the lower left corner of the check or on an attached sheet.

7. That Church Treasurers and Pastors very carefully review together the quarterly status of the giving of the church in order that contributions remain up-to-date. If there is a disagreement on the amount distributed or the designation of the same, please contact the Presbytery office (either Bauer or McFarland) immediately.

8. That special offerings for the MbujiMayi Health and Nutrition Program in Zaire be continued with all checks clearly marked for that purpose, especially when included with other benevolence funds. This is again a Special offering and does not apply to the budget.

E. Adopted the following policy for the regular visitation of churches and the review of sessional minutes by the Committee on the Session and Its Work:

The Book of Church Order defines the duties and responsibilities of the Church Session in Chapter 15 and requires in paragraph 15-7 that: "Every Session shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings, which shall be submitted at least once every year to Presbytery for its review and control."

The duties and responsibilities of the Presbytery are defined in Chapter 16 of the BCO, and paragraph 16-7(3) requires the Presbytery "To review the records of Sessions, redress whatever they may have done contrary to order, and take effectual care that they observe the Constitution of the church."

Orange Presbytery has delegated the responsibility for doing this to the Committee on the Session and Its Work, which reports thru the Commission on the Minister/Division of Elders to the Presbytery the results of their review of each Session's records.

The Committee on the Session and Its Work sees this not only as a responsibility, but as an opportunity to establish personal contact between the Presbytery and the Church Session, and thus facilitate communication between the two.

Orange Presbytery is committed to strengthening the worship, education, and mission of its member churches, and we believe that the first step in accomplishing this is effective communication thru personal interaction. We see this process of the review of Sessional records as a channel thru which needs can be communicated effectively to the Presbytery and help provided where needed in the areas of worship, education, and mission.

Sometimes problems, difficulties, and conflicts arise in churches which can be minimized and solved by early detection and effective remedial action, but which if allowed to smolder undetected eventually explode and do irreparable damage to the spiritual life of the church. We see this process as an opportunity to be of assistance in these cases also.

THEREFORE, THE COMMITTEE ON THE SESSION AND ITS WORK HAS SET FOR ITSELF THE FOLLOWING OBJECTIVES:

(1) To review annually the Sessional records of each church within the Presbytery as soon as practicable after the close of each calendar year (allowing sufficient time for the records to be completed).

(2) To seek to improve the quality of Sessional records by sharing in person the results of the review with the Clerk of the Session and the Moderator.

(3) To be sensitive to the needs of each church in the areas of worship, education, and mission and to inform the Clerk and the Moderator of the resources of the Presbytery which are available to them in these areas.

(4) To be sensitive to any problems, difficulties, or conflicts in the church and to offer the assistance of the Presbytery in helping to solve them.

(5) To provide a channel of communication between the Session and the Presbytery (both ways) in order to strengthen the connectional relationship between the two courts.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE SESSION AND ITS WORK PROPOSES TO CARRY OUT THESE OBJECTIVES IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

(1) Enlist and train twenty-five persons throughout the Presbytery to each accept responsibility for five churches (with some variation in the number where needed).

(2) These persons would be carefully chosen by the Committee, adequately trained, and authorized to review the Sessional records of their assigned churches as representatives of the Committee.

(3) These persons would be expected to initiate, arrange for, and complete a personal visit to each assigned church as soon as practicable after the close of each calendar year.

(4) At the time of each visit, these persons would review the Sessional records privately for the preceding year, and then share the results of the review with the Clerk of the Session and the Moderator, with a view to clarifying and interpreting the observations and exceptions noted, discussing any needs or problems observed in the life and program of the church, and offering the support and resources of the Presbytery for assistance.

(5) Duplicate copies of the review form would be completed by the reviewer, one copy being given to the Clerk of the Session and one copy to the Committee on the Session and Its Work.

(6) A written report of any observed needs or problems would be submitted to the Committee for appropriate referral, follow-up, or action by the Committee. (This is particularly important in order to prevent assistance being offered and then not rendered.)

(7) The Committee is acutely aware of the importance of several factors in the implementation of this plan:

(a) The persons chosen to do this must be carefully selected on the basis of certain basic qualities, such as:

- a positive attitude personally and toward the church
- a commitment to the Presbyterian form of government

- some experience working in the Presbyterian Church
- a willingness to listen
- sensitivity to the needs of others
- dependable and reliable

This committee firmly believes that this plan will have a positive effect on the working relationship between the Sessions and the Presbytery, and will "personalize" the process of reviewing Sessional records. We can see many benefits deriving from this thru improved channels of communication and a sincere desire to strengthen the connectional nature of our Presbyterian form of government. We commend the plan to you and request your support of it.

The above policy was adopted for review of sessional records.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations and its committees, Docket, Finance and Stewardship have met and approved the Minutes of the October 24, 1979 meeting for printing. These will be distributed at the February 20 meeting of the court. The Docket Committee also recommended to the new Presbytery Council that a three member Commission to review the Minutes of Presbytery be appointed from the Durham area.

The Docket Committee gratefully accepted the invitation of the First Presbyterian Church, Eden, N. C. to host the Spring, 1980 meeting of the court.

The Stewardship Committee recommends the following for 1979 to the new committee:

1. The Presbyterian News Insert would be published every other month or six issues annually. This is to provide better communication with local churches and families of Orange Presbytery.
2. That a Communications Cabinet be established for 1979 and that television/audio visuals ministry be established that would provide programs on media to local churches and make audio visuals available to local churches.
3. That each church appoint a Contact Person from either Finance or Stewardship Committee and advise Presbytery's office of their name, address and telephone number in order to relieve pastor of some of the communication responsibilities.
4. That Workshops for the following persons provide training in the area of Stewardship in 1979: Pastors, Clerks of Sessions, Chair of Diaconate, Treasurers and Bookkeepers, Women of the Church, Youth and Stewardship and Finance Chair.
5. That a Presbytery Fair be held in a central location every three years and that budget be included in the 1981 Budget for such an event.

The Finance Committee met and reviewed the 1978 receipts from churches, made decisions regarding recommendations for 1979 Budget based on acceptances from churches to the Council of Orange Presbytery.

Each church is to be commended for their dedicated efforts in making the Mission Program of all three courts possible during 1978. The 1978 acceptances from local churches were met in full and some churches dug deep and gave over and above the acceptance. However, Presbytery as a whole received 94.8% of the 1978 budget of $1,389,432. This was due to the adoption of a deficit budget for that year.

Other recommendations were made regarding giving to Synod and General Assembly for 1979 and receipt of Special Offerings. (These will appear in the report of Presbytery's Council.)

The court heard Richard Brand speak of the work being done for Singles and of the forthcoming Retreat. Lottie Adkins spoke of Migrant Ministry and Daniel Hamby presented information on Synod's Leadership Training Mini-Conferences.

YOUTH MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The youth ministries committee had a retreat in Burlington on January 27th on leadership training for adults and students. There were 140 people in attendance.

UPCOMING EVENT:

Judy Fletcher, an advisor in Christian Education has been secured by the Division to lead a series of regional meetings, April 21-28, 1979 to hear the concerns and needs of our churches for improving resourcing for Christian Education in the Presbytery. Specific dates and places and times will be announced in the near future.

The youth ministries will sponsor a senior high retreat at Camp New Hope on March 16, 17, 18, 1979 entitled, "Worshiping Where We Live". Special guest will be Jeff Kellam, Host of Celebration Rock. Further details later.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

(1) That the resolution regarding the endorsement of a loan from the Synod of North Carolina to the Siler City Presbyterian Church (to be presented under communications) be approved.

(2) That the Presbytery hear Dan Hamby for 2 minutes concerning the Synod's Leadership Training Mini-Conferences.

SUMMER CAMP PROGRAM

Promotional and camper registration materials for the 1979 camp program at Presbyterian Point are available today. Commissioners of local churches are asked to pick up packets of camping publicity materials at the registration desk before leaving.

Camping opportunities this summer at Presbyterian Point are essentially the same as for previous seasons. The schedule opens June 10-15 with Junior cabin camp, Junior sailing, and Junior Hi sailing. The camping season ends with Senior Hi Trail Camp July 30 - August 10.

Camp registration and inquiries about scheduled camps should be directed to Presbyterian Point, Henderson, N. C., Route 5, 27536, telephone 804-252-1603. The summer camp program committee is presently recruiting resident staff counselors for the summer camp program. Applications may be directed to Lee W. Adkins, Triangle Presbyterian Church, 4611 Apex Highway, Durham, N. C., 27713.

CONTINUATION OF REPORT FROM THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION:

REPORT OF HUNGER-ENERGY TASK FORCE

SPONSORSHIP OF REFUGEES

The opportunity to give new life to refugees in caring for communities is increasingly urgent. A meeting in December in Geneva of 37 nations involved in the Indochina resettlement resulted in an extra 3,850 resettlement places and additional financial aid of $12 million from the U. S. Government. Church World Service usually resettles 15 percent of the refugees but the enormous increase has caused them to fall to 11 percent.

Perhaps some additional information as to risk factors will decrease the anxiety of churches in regard to committing themselves to take the step. The Sponsor and the Refugee together will be sent by Church World Service $100 per person to be spent for resettlement expenses. Church World Service and the PCUS will be able to help beyond that in emergency situations — medical and dental expenses, hospital expenses, mental health problems, job development, and ESL classes.

Additional information can be secured from Margaret Montgomery, Staff Assistant for World Service, DIM, 341 Ponce de Leon Ave., NE, Atlanta, GA 30308.

HUNGER-ENERGY RESOURCES — through Presbytery office, no charge.

(1) Beyond Survival: Bread and Justice in Christian Perspective, edited by Dieter T. Dessel of the UP Church. On loan for study books - 25 copies, 2 leaders' guides.

(2) Living Simply: A series of filmstrips (5) suggesting ways in which a congregation may begin to develop a lifestyle which responds to diminishing resources — each filmstrip approximately 15 minutes in length.

(3) New slide program on Mbujimayi Project prepared by Richard Gillespie — available by March 1, approximately 15 minutes in length.

(4) Bulletin insert/flyers with picture of Center and offering envelopes to keep in pew racks — available at meeting of Presbytery or office.

FINANCIAL REPORT OF HUNGER-ENERGY TASK FORCE: The response of the churches during the past year has been very encouraging. A $12,000 check was received in early 1979 which would have enabled us to exceed our yearly budget forecast figure.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH

The Council of the Women of the Church, Orange Presbytery, met January 17th at Smithfield Presbyterian Church, Smithfield, with the presidents of local churches as special guests. Reports were heard from each Council member.

This is the time of year women are concerned and involved in the Witness Season programs and projects in each local church. The special Witness Season study and emphasis being "Contemporary China" and Covenant Living in Times of Change". Mrs. E. P. Cunningham, Jr., 720 S. First St., Smithfield, N. C. 27577, is the Advocate and is scheduling missionary speakers during the Witness Season.

In November, Mrs. Peggy Rambo, Good Shepherd Hospital, Zaire, made an emergency call for gauze squares for the hospital. Immediately upon notice the Women of Orange responded with contributions amounting to $873.30. This money was forwarded to the Mission Board in December and the gauze squares are no doubt in Zaire by now. Patsy Davis, White Cross chairperson reported that Good Shepherd would receive our White Cross this year and materials costing $4,100 have been purchased and will soon be shipped to Zaire. The Women of Orange will also roll bandages for the Wilson Leprosy Center. Our thanks to each of you for this wonderful work.

Our 1979 Birthday Interpreter is Mrs. Claudius Dockery, III, 4105 Redwine Drive, Greensboro, N. C. 27410. She will be in Atlanta for two days in February learning about and getting information on the Birthday Project which is "Mission Through Education", with emphasis on Christian Higher Education Ministries and Ecumenical Institute Bossey, near Geneva, Switzerland. Beginning in March, Mrs. Dockery will visit the Districts to give information to the local Presidents and the program chairpersons of the Women of the Church.

Plans are being made for the Annual Meeting which will be held April 4-5, at First Presbyterian Church, High Point. Our Theme is "Courage for Commitment". Our speakers will be Dr. W. Kirk Allen and Mrs. John W. McQueen.

Many people have been instrumental in making my first year as president meaningful and enjoyable. Thank you, to the staff of Orange Presbytery, the Women of the Church Council and the Women of Orange Presbytery. I covet your prayers.

Edna Bell, President

REPORT OF THE NORTHGATE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION

The Northgate Administrative Commission is continuing to meet regularly each month with the various church committees set up by the Commission and with the Reverend Victor Scott.

Mr. Scott was installed as an Evangelist by the Commission and assigned to labor at the Northgate Church on August 20, 1978. Under his leadership the congregation has united and moved forward so well that the Commission feels that the time has come to proceed toward the election of a new session and diaconate. To prepare for this a congregational committee was set up to recommend the best procedure by which nominations might be made.

The committee made its recommendations to the congregation on January 30, 1979 and they were adopted. In line with these procedures, a Nominations Committee was set up and is now at work. At its February 25 meeting, the Commission adopted the following time table for the election, training and ordination of the new session and diaconate:

April 4	A congregational meeting to elect ruling elders and deacons
April 27-29	A training Retreat for new officers-elect at Presbyterian Point
May 13	A Called Meeting of the Administrative Commission to examine the officers-elect
May 20	Ordination and/or Installation of Officers

The Commission is most favorably impressed with the leadership of Mr. Scott and the heartwarming manner in which the congregation is working with him to return the Northgate Church to normalcy and to advance the work of Christ.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

With thanksgiving to God, Who provides for all our needs out of His riches in Grace in Christ Jesus, The Presbytery of Orange, meeting at Peace College in Raleigh, April 24, 1979, expresses its gratitude to all those who have contributed to the comfort, pleasure and effectiveness of its meeting today.

We are grateful to the Administration, Staff, and students of Peace College for the careful and thoughtful preparations for the comfort and convenience of the Presbytery, for the delicious lunch we enjoyed, and for sharing with us their cordial hospitality, the beauty of their grounds in Springtime, and the accommodations of their campus;

We thank our moderator, Pansie Evers for her fair and effective conduct of the business and communications of the court;

We express our appreciation to those who prepared and those who led the meaningful worship which lifted our hearts and encouraged our commitments;

We are indebted to the Staff of Presbytery for the thorough preparation and provision for details which have contributed to the effective work of this body;

We thank the participants in the meeting — leaers of the Presbytery who have presented and interpreted reports and information, and commissioners and ministers who have shared the gift of their insights and convictions as God has led them;

We look forward with anticipation to the afternoon presentation on "Unity in Mission", and express our gratitude to our General Assembly's Moderator and the Staff of the General Assembly Mission Board and Synod for their contributions to our understanding of the Mission of Christ's Church.

To all these we say our grateful thanks for their ministries in this meeting; and we give the Glory to God, Who gives good gifts to us and to His whole Church exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.

4. Stated Clerk has received an Overture from the Shiloh Presbyterian Church which follows below and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

OVERTURE TO THE 120TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Whereas, the Book of Church Order (Ch. 7-2) and the General Assembly's stance on the theology of church membership affirm that a child born to believing parents on the communicant roll of a Presbyterian Church is a member of that church at birth; and

Whereas, the Presbyterian Church, U. S., recommends the early baptism of every child born to active communicant (confirmed) members but does not require it; and

Whereas, the Communicant Roll now kept by all Presbyterian churches as well as the Baptized Roll proposed by the 119th General Assembly include only baptized children leaving all unbaptized children recorded but not enrolled; and

Whereas, there are in fact many children who by family choice or a complex of circumstances present themselves for baptism at the time of their confirmation years after their birth, during which years no roll attests to the fact of their church membership,

Whereas, the stated purpose of the roll of a church or of any organization is to record all members of that church or organization; and

Be it resolved that the Session of the Shiloh Presbyterian Church of the Presbytery of Orange overtures the 120th General Assembly to approve the establishment of a fourth roll in every P.C.U.S. church, THE ROLL OF COVENANT MEMBERS, to enroll all infant church members from the moment of birth until the advent of baptism.

5. Stated Clerk informed court that a letter has been received from the New Brunswick Presbytery authorizing Orange Presbytery to examine and

REPORT OF THE NORTHGATE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION

The Northgate Administrative Commission has good news! We are happy to report that the church is now ready to resume control of its affairs.

With the permission of the Commission, the congregation elected Ruling Elders and deacons for its new Session and Board of Deacons on April 8, 1979. These officers-elect have been trained in the doctrine and government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States in accordance with the Book of Church Order by the Reverend Victor Scott. They were examined by the Commission on June 17, 1979 and the examination was sustained. Sunday, June 24, 1979 has been set as the date for their ordination/installation. Under the leadership of its new Session the church will next move to elect a pulpit committee and proceed to call a pastor.

The Commission expresses its appreciation to the Northgate congregation for the support and cooperation it has given the Commission. We commend the congregation for the manner in which it has resolved its problems and moved forward during a lengthy period of upheaval and transition. 6. A Resolution from the session of the First Presbyterian Church, Henderson, N.C. was read by the stated clerk and action was taken to refer the resolution to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Whereas Orange Presbytery at its June 19, 1979 meeting adopted a resolution directing the Finance Committee to develop a policy statement and guidelines which will seek to insure that all Presbytery investments are made with corporations/institutions/funds whose policies are in keeping with the mission and justice goals of the PCUS and whose products/service are life-enhancing as opposed to life-destroying; and

Whereas it is doubtful that any business corporation has policies in keeping with the mission and justice goals of the PCUS, notwithstanding the fact that many corporate officers and employees as individuals share these goals; and

Whereas many products and services of an industrial society can be both life-enhancing and life-destroying, such as the automobile, airplane, petroleum industry, railroads, electrical utilities and the vast number of businesses that supply and service these industries; and

Whereas the determination of whether a product such as the automobile is life-enhancing or life-destroying may be philosophically intriguing, is reminiscent of the mediaeval argument about how many angels could stand on the head of a pin, and totally ignores the financial soundness of the investment; and

Whereas the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Henderson feels that said resolution is impractical, impossible to carry out and a waste of time that should be spent on other Christian endeavers;

Now therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Henderson objects to and repudiates the action of the Presbytery in adopting said Resolution and requests that Presbytery reconsider its action and adopt the original motion appearing as Item 5 on Page 6 of the Report to Council.

Respectfully submitted,
The Session
First Presbyterian Church
Henderson, North Carolina
J. R. McAlpine, III, Moderator
J. A. Mahaffey, Clerk

7. A resolution from the Trustees of Presbytery regarding deeding of the property of the White Oak Presbyterian Church from Orange Presbytery to the trustees of the White Oak Church was read by the stated clerk. This is in compliance with an agreement made on October 4, 1974, stating we would deed the property to the Church at the end of a five year period if certain requirements were met. These having been met, action was taken to adopt the resolution and instruct the trustees of Orange Presbytery to convey a deed to the trustees of the White Oak Church.

WHEREAS, pursuant to a Resolution duly adopted by Orange Presbytery on October 4, 1974, the Trustees of Orange Presbytery leased to White Oak Church (White Oak Presbyterian Church) three tracts of land located in Great Swamp Township, Wayne County, North Carolina, for the period of five years; and

WHEREAS, said lease contained certain conditions to be complied with by White Oak Church and said lease further provided that if said conditions were complied with by said church, then at the end of the five year period of said lease, White Oak Church could elect, at its option, to have the lease property conveyed to it without the payment of any additional consideration; and

WHEREAS, said five year period has expired and all of said conditions have been complied with by said White Oak Church and said church has requested Orange Presbytery, through its trustees, to convey to it the three tracts of land which were the subject of said lease;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by Orange Presbytery that the trustees of Orange Presbytery are hereby authorized and directed to convey to White Oak Presbyterian Church, or its trustees, without the payment of any further consideration therefore, the three tracts of land owned by Orange Presbytery in Great Swamp Township, Wayne County, North Carolina, which are described in Book 318, at page 29, Book 606, page 8, and Book 606, page 10, respectively, in the Office of the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, North Carolina.

DOCKET ADOPTED

Action was taken to adopt the Docket of Presbytery as presented in the Orange Book as amended to hear the report of the Committee to study and reply to Presbytery regarding a Fourth Roll of Communicants at this time.

RESOLUTION OF SESSION OF SHILOH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The following Resolution was presented to the June 19th meeting of the court. A committee was appointed by the moderator to study the resolution and report back to this meeting. The Resolution is as follows:

OVERTURE TO THE 120TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Whereas, the Book of Church Order (Ch. 7-2) and the General Assembly's stance on the theology of church membership affirm that a child born to believing parents on the communicant roll of a Presbyterian Church is a member of that church at birth; and

Whereas, the Presbyterian Church, U.S., recommends the early baptism of every child born to active communicant (confirmed) members but does not require it; and

Whereas, the Communicant Roll now kept by all Presbyterian churches as well as the Baptized Roll proposed by the 119th General Assembly include only baptized children leaving all unbaptized children recorded but not enrolled; and

Whereas, there are in fact many children who by family choice or a complex of circumstances present themselves for baptism at the time of their confirmation years after their birth, during which years no roll attests to the fact of their church membership,

Whereas, the stated purpose of the roll of a church or of any organization is to record all members of that church or organization; and

Be it resolved that the Session of the Shiloh Presbyterian Church of the Presbytery of Orange overtures the 120th Generay Assembly to approve the establishment of a fourth roll in every P.C.U.S. church, THE ROLL OF COVENANT MEMBERS, to enroll all infant church members from the moment of birth until the advent of baptism.

Action was taken by the court to adopt the response of the Committee Appointed by the Moderator to the Resolution (as follows):

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE TO STUDY AND RECOMMEND TO THE PRESBYTERY AN ANSWER TO THE OVERTURE FROM THE SESSION OF THE SHILOH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

In view of the fact that the General Assembly has sent down to the churches the paper, "Church Membership and Discipline," for study and advice, and sent to the presbyteries for action proposed changes in the Book of Church Order regarding the keeping of rolls of the local church, it is our recommendation that the overture from the Session of Shiloh Presbyterian Church be answered in the negative.

We encourage the sessions of local churches to read and study the above mentioned paper, "Church Membership and Discipline" and to exercise its pastoral concern for all members of the congregation including the children, baptized and non-baptized.

W. Kirk Allen, Jr., Chairman

E. That the following Standards for Compensation of Ministers in Orange Presbytery be adopted.

STANDARDS FOR COMPENSATION OF MINISTERS IN ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. Starting Salary Including Housing Allowance

The minimum figure for this category is $12,080. Of this a specific amount can be designated as housing allowance in lieu of a manse. This should be an amount equal to the cost of mortgage payments, taxes, and other annual cost of maintaining and furnishing the minister's residence. (Cost of utilities and upkeep are to be paid by the church and are not to be included or deducted from this minimum cash salary.)

In the case of churches that own and provide manses, the minimum cash salary paid to a minister is set at $9,010. (Cost of utilities and upkeep are to be paid by the church and are not to be included or deducted from this minimum cash salary). The Commission on the Minister understands this base salary as a minimum fair salary for those who are duly ordained by the Presbytery as teaching elders. That is, it is a starting salary for full-time work.

II. Standard Fringe Benefits

These include the full 12% M.A.F. dues, Major Medical Insurance for the minister and his/her family and a vacation for one month.

III. Professional Expenses

These are expenses which should be borne by the churches and are not properly a part of salary or benefits. They include:

(a) The cost of travel involved in performance of ministerial duties (preferably the provision of a car; alternatively a rate per mile equal to the maximum allowed by the IRS. Should professional travel expenses be paid as a lump sum, amount paid should reflect actual expenses as nearly as possible respecting the IRS maximum allowable.

(b) The time and costs involved in continuing education:

  (1) $500 paid each year for the maintenance of professional competence and for extended professional development. The payment of the money is not contingent upon the two weeks being taken in that year. The minister has flexibility in this matter.

  (2) Two-week study leave annually allowed for professional continuing education. Study leave may be accumulated as mutually agreed and made an official part of the contractual call.

IV. Guidelines for Annual Review and Adjustment of Minister's Salaries

Factors to be considered in adding increments to the standard minimum at the time of issuing Call or annual evaluation and adjustment of minister's salaries include:

(a) Previous experience in the ministry.
(b) Demonstrated competence and improved skills.

F. That congregations within Orange Presbytery be reminded that the BCO requires all churches meet the current minimum compensation standards.

G. That the call of the Eno and Fairfield Presbyterian Churches to Robert L. Ellis be changed to one-half time basis beginning August 25, 1979, with annual salary reduced to $5,255.00, all other terms remaining the same.

H. That the following be granted their request to be honorably retired:

1. Tom B. Anderson as of December 31, 1979.
2. Robert F. Park as of December 31, 1979 because of disability.
3. James McDaniel as of November 28, 1979.
4. D. Hilton Seals as of October 23, 1979.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

Donald Lannon, chairman of Presbytery's Council presented the report which was adopted:

I. The Council reports the following as information:

A. That Morton Kurtz and Lee Adkins have resigned from the Council.

B. That the following recommendations from the study of the Southeast Orange Area Ministry (SOAM) are being implemented:

1. That the eight churches be divided into smaller groupings, which would become calling units to be served by full-time church professionals. This means each congregation will have the opportunity to elect its own pastor(s).
2. That SOAM continue to exist as a loose-knit confederation of the eight congregations for joint efforts in worship, education, mission, fellowship and service (e.g., SOAM Sunday, SOAM Men of the Church, Christmas program, teacher training, etc.)
3. That each of the SOAM congregations join the process of determining the groupings of churches, and the process of reorganizing SOAM as a confederation without a decision-making body. It would be desirable to have a Central Coordinating Committee to plan and schedule joint activities like SOAM Sunday, SOAM MOC, etc.

C. That Council has adopted a policy whereby requests for special appearances before Presbytery by those agencies, institutions, or organizations not sponsored by one of Presbytery's Council Sections shall be approved and docketed only by Presbytery's Council action.

D. That the following staff assignments have been made effective October 2, 1979:

E. "That a permanent evaluation committee be established to review programs and staff supported by Orange Presbytery whenever a staff person is approaching the end of his/her term of call, whenever a new Staff person is requested, whenever the employment of any person or project is terminated, or whenever the scope of a program or project is changed, reporting to the Council of Presbytery their recommendations. This review and evaluation will consider both the effectiveness of the program or project or person to date and the advisability and scope of continuance.

This committee will be appointed by Council annually after receiving nominations from the Executive Committee which shall seek nominations from each of the Sections of Council. This committee shall consist of six persons who have expertise and experience in the methodology of evaluation and they need not be members of Council. They shall serve for three years in three rotating classes. The Council shall name the Chairman of the Committee."

F. That the report of the Hunger Task Force of the Special Mission Section is presented for information. (See page 3).

G. That Council will monitor the usage of John Garrison's time in the area of Christian Education resourcing for local churches until July, 1980 to determine if there is a need for a full-time Christian Education Resource person.

II. The Council makes the following recommendations to Orange Presbytery:

A. That the Proposed Budget for 1980 be adopted. (p. 154)

B. That Camp Fees be increased 10% and the new fee schedule and regulations be adopted. p. 131-132

C. That Orange Presbytery will not knowingly invest any funds with corporations/institutions whose policies are known to be in opposition to the mission and justice goals of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. and whose products/services are determined to be life-destroying as opposed to life enhancing.

*Groups are responsible for 90% of total projected meal fees. Upon 2 days notice camps are responsible for serving up to 10% surplus or total projected meals. (Example: A group schedules meals for 100 persons and is financially responsible for 90 meals (minimum) and with 2 days notice could be served 110 meals.)

Up to 50 persons. $75.00 maximum. $30.00 minimum.

1980 is proposed to be the last year groups may rent the main kitchen at Presbyterian Point due to: 1) projected refurbishing of facilities, 2) availability of 4 other equipped kitchens, and 3) to bring Presbyterian Point and Camp New Hope policies in line.

Note on fixed overnight rates for buildings: It is the opinion of the Camp Section and Camp Managers that a fixed cost per building per night in lieu of an overnight fee increase has the following advantages: 1) simplifies fee schedule, 2) encourages larger groups and smaller groups to schedule units/facilities matched to their size, 3) encourages lodging for more than one night with reduced subsequent night rates, 4) with savings in lodging, encourages meal catering at both facilities, and 5) brings P.P. and C.N.H. policies in line.

Reservations shall be confirmed on a first come basis except when camps are scheduled and shall reflect the mission and theological purposes of Orange Presbytery as a benefit to the whole region.

Deposits are required and must be received to confirm all reservations. Deposits shall be 15% of the total projected cost of meals, facilities and services reserved. Minimum deposits are $15.00 without meal charge and $25.00 with meal service. Deposits are credited against the total charges incurred. Deposits shall be refunded only upon written request received not less than 60 days before the reserved date(s) with no exceptions.

Cancellation charges will be assessed in the amount of 50% of total projected costs in the event of late cancellations. Late cancellations are defined as cancellations occurring within 30 days of reserved date(s).

Fines: Groups are responsible for leaving all facilities in clean and orderly fashion, and are responsible for the cost of damages beyond normal wear and tear. Fines may be assessed with minimum charges of $10.00.

No Reservation Usage: Groups may use any rental facility if not previously reserved by calling and checking with Camp Managers the week (5 working days) before the desired use date. Costs will be assessed at $3 per person instead of the standard facility rental fee. This includes families and individuals.

People: "Victory to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

Leader: "And all the angels stood round the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, crying:

People: "AMEN! PRAISE AND GLORY AND WISDOM, THANKSGIVING AND HONOR, POWER AND MIGHT, BE TO OUR GOD FOR EVER AND EVER! AMEN!" (Rev. 7:9-12)

MEMORIAL
JOHN SAMUEL COOK

John Samuel Cook was born at Pilot Mountain, North Carolina, May 17, 1886. He was the son of Samuel Terry Cook and Susan Abigail Neugent Cook. In the due course of time, he studied at Davidson College, Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Virginia, and did graduate work at Biblical Seminary at New York City. His basic academic work was completed in 1917, about the time our country was entering World War I.

Mr. Cook was married three times. The first one was to Miss Margaret Cooper of Graham, North Carolina, on July, 1916. The children of this union were John Samuel Cook Jr. and Margaret Geneva Cook. Margaret later became the wife of Reverend Griffith Hamlin. The first Mrs. Cook died in October, 1921. The next marriage was to Miss Bertha Spessard of Chewsville, Maryland, September 11, 1923, and, to this union David Spessard Cook and Walter Lewis Cook were born. The third marriage was to Mrs. Mabel Shuford of Spray (now Eden), North Carolina, September 25, 1966, and she survives him.

J. S. Cook, as he was commonly known, was ordained by Tygarts Valley Presbytery in the Synod of West Virginia in 1917, at which time he became the pastor of the Alpena Presbyterian Church and a group of churches in that Presbytery. Following these pastorates, he served churches at Huttonsville and Mill Creek, West Virginia. Upon the completion of this work, he became an evangelist in Tygarts Presbytery and also served as Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. From 1922 to 1927, he was pastor of the Spray Presbyterian Church (now Eden). Then he accepted the work of the Jonesboro (now Sanford) Church, together with a group of churches. From 1935 to 1941, he was pastor of the Riverview Church at North Spray (now in Eden). He served the Little River group of churches in Orange Presbytery from 1942 to 1949, after which time, he became the pastor of Harmony and Tabor Churches, and remained there from 1949 to 1956. He was retired (honorably) at the end of December, 1956.

In the course of one's work and travels, one often, somewhere along the way, comes to a place where he is heard to say: "Here is the place where I should like to retire some day and spend the remainder of my time on earth!" That is what this servant of the Lord did. From among all the places that he had been, he chose what is now Eden as his final earthly home. Actually, he died at Piedmont Nursing Home at Graham, North Carolina, where he had been taken temporarily, but Eden was his home. His funeral was in the Riverview Presbyterian Church, March 8, 1980, conducted by John C. Whitley, assisted by Lindsay Strader, a retired Methodist minister in the community. Burial was in Overlook Cemetery of Eden immediately after the funeral.

J. S. Cook served the Lord faithfully and for a long time. His thoughts were long thoughts, for he lacked only a few weeks reaching 94 years of age, and all his peers had preceded him to their heavenly reward. But he was patient and loving and kind. He never sought prominence or praise, but, with joy and love, preached the Word that was delivered to him and did the work of a good pastor, to the end. Old as he was in years, he waited quietly, and with a smile on his face, as if to say,

> "This is Eden! There are two little rivers flowing from the hills above us and surrounding us. They are not the Euphrates nor the Hiddekl nor the Gihon nor the Pison. They are the Dan and the Smith, but from here it is not far to Heaven!"

5. An Overture was presented by the Session of the University Presbyterian Church, Chapel Hill, N. C. and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, when appointed.

WHEREAS the 120th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. amended the Directory for Worship by adding a new section, 209-10, which reads as follows: "In its responsibility to maintain the spiritual government of the Church, the Church Session shall welcome baptized children to the Lord's Table and shall provide appropriate educational and nurturing opportunities for parents and children, aiding and encouraging them to understand the meaning and significance of the Lord's Supper. Suitable recognition of persons welcomed to the Lord's Table should be made in the presence of the congregation"; and,

WHEREAS the constitution of our church declares that the visible church "consists of all those who make profession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, together with their children" (Form of Government 2-1; Westminster Confession of Faith XXVII-2) without reference to baptism; and,

WHEREAS there are in most of our congregations some children of members who have not been baptized, and who are of an age judged to be too old to receive infant baptism and too young to receive adult baptism and confirmation; and

WHEREAS such children are by definition of our constitution members of the church even though they may not have received that sacrament which acknowledges their membership, and,

WHEREAS it appears to us that such children ought to be admitted to the Lord's Table on the same terms as those set forth for baptized children;

NOW THEREFORE the Presbytery of Orange respectfully overtures the 121st General Assembly to initiate the process for making the following changes in the FORM OF GOVERNMENT and the DIRECTORY FOR WORSHIP:

1. Amend the DIRECTORY FOR WORSHIP Sec. 209-10 by deleting the word "baptized" and by inserting the words "all children of confirmed members".

2. Amend the DIRECTORY FOR WORSHIP Sec. 211-7 by adding the following as (c): "All unbaptized children of confirmed believers who have been welcomed by the Church Session in accordance with the provisions of the D. W. 209-10" (as amended). Change the present "(c)" to "(d)".

3. Amend the FORM OF GOVERNMENT Chapter 7-3 by changing it to read as follows: "The children of believers are, through the covenant and by right of birth or adoption, members of the Church. Such membership, while normally recognized and affirmed by Baptism, exists prior to Baptism. All such children are entitled to participate in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, in accordance with the provisions of the Directory for Worship, Section 209-10" (as amended).

4. Amend the FORM OF GOVERNMENT Chapter 8-7 by adding as #3 the following: "The roll of unbaptized children of confirmed members." Change the present "#3" to "#4".

5. Amend the FORM OF GOVERNMENT Chapter 15-6-3 by changing it to read as follows: "To instruct parents who are confirmed members to present their children for baptism, to enroll all children of confirmed members as baptized or unbaptized members, and to welcome all members to the Lord's Table in accordance with the provisions of our constitution.

6. A communication from the Session of the Westview Presbyterian Church was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Session of Westview Presbyterian Church is requesting that Orange Presbytery draft an overture for provisions in the Book of Church Order for the use of a Unicameral System in a local church, at the October 21, 1980 meeting of Orange Presbytery.

This stems from the fact that there are no guidelines in our BCO concerning the Unicameral System.

Helpful information:
- (a) How to revert back to two boards.
- (b) Recommend/or present guidelines how officers should be elected.
- (c) Whether the present Session dissolve/or what recommendations should be made.

If this request is approved by Orange Presbytery, that the Presbytery study and present an overture for the BCO at the General Assembly Meeting of 1981.

We will appreciate your concerns and recommendations.

This theme was carried out at the Eighty Third Annual Meeting of the Women of the Church, Orange Presbytery, April 15, 1980 at Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. Four scholarships for 1980-81 school year have been awarded to Melissa Kay Moody of Bonlee; Richard Addison Mabe of High Point; Maria Lynn Evans of Oxford, and Frank W. Aycock, III, of Warrenton.

President, Jane Miller of Asheboro and Vice President, Margaret Terry of Raleigh were commissioners to the General Assembly, Myrtle Beach, S. C. representing Orange Presbytery. Montreat Conferences were well attended by Women of the Church, the largest number (132) attending the North Carolina Women's Conference in June.

Fifteen Council members met at Glade Valley School, August 15, for a planning session. At this meeting a resolution (with unanimous approval) was drafted to send to Orange Presbytery's Budget Committee requesting Glade Valley School be placed in the Presbytery budget.

During September and October, the Women's Council has traveled to seven districts to train local women. Churches hosting district meetings were: Wentworth, Faith, Graham, Northgate, Milner Memorial, Geneva and Spring Hill. More than 800 women have attended these meetings.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S CONCERNS

One of the mandates for the Committee on Women's Concerns is to monitor our system and bring to light any facet of inequity regarding women serving our Church in Orange Presbytery. As you can see by the following report, women are losing ground. I realize that we in Orange Presbytery had a good number of women attending the General Assembly this year. However, there are other areas where women are not representative of our female constituency which is over 50% in Orange Presbytery.

The Committee on Women's Concerns of Orange Presbytery is monitoring all phases of Presbytery's work including the active participation of capable women serving on Presbytery's Council, the Commission on the Minister, the Nominating Committee and Trustees of Orange Presbytery and other institutions. We have observed the following:

I. Nominating Committee - Membership: 16, Women: 6

II. Trustees of Orange Presbytery - Membership: 6, Women: 0

III. Commission on the Minister - Membership: 12, Women: 2

IV. Council of Orange Presbytery - Membership: 51, Women: 13 (Class of 1980 had 4 women, replaced by Class of 1984 with 1 woman)

V. Court Administrative Services Section - No women

VI. Special Missions Section - No women

VII. Budget Preparation - 1 woman

VIII. Camps Section - No women

IX. Other Data: (1) A female has not served as Chairperson of Presbytery's Council since restructure. (2) A female has never chaired the Commission on the Minister since restructure.

In April of 1980 a list of names of qualified, capable women who had volunteered to serve on either the Commission on the Minister or Council of Presbytery was sent to each member of the Nominating Committee and its chairperson for their consideration. The results were:

(1) 1 woman out of 12 new nominees was nominated for Council of Presbytery
(2) 1 woman out of 4 new nominees was nominated to serve on the Commission on the Minister
(3) No woman was nominated for Moderator-elect or Trustee of Orange Presbytery

X.	Total Communicants of Orange Presbytery	36,833	(1979)
	Total female communicants	18,896
	Total Elders - Men	1,130	83%
	Total Elders - Women	234	17%
	Total Deacons - Men	880	79%
	Total Deacons - Women	228	21%

Minutes of the 120th General Assembly, p. 392

"The General Assembly has frequently reminded the Church of the need to provide for inclusion of women in a ratio of at least 1/3 on Boards, Agencies and Committees."

The Committee on Women's Concerns would prayerfully request that we seek together to build the wholeness of our Church with a true representation of capable and efficient men and women to serve in the position of leadership in Orange Presbytery.

II. Recommendations:

A. To authorize the trustees of Orange Presbytery to proceed with the acquisition of land for a new church development in the North Raleigh area, as proposed by the Presbyterian Urban Council of Raleigh.

B. To note with appreciation and commendation the formation of the Wake County Presbyterian Foundation, Inc., for the purpose of acquiring real property for use as sites for church development in the greater Raleigh area. (Copies of the constitution and by-laws are on file at Orange Presbytery Office)

C. To call Winona Millicent Jones as Chaplain for the North Carolina Correctional Center for Women in cooperation with Concord and Mecklenburg Presbyteries. Motion to delay this matter until report of Commission.

COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S CONCERNS

Carter Smith, chairperson, spoke to the written report on representation of women throughout the committees, Council and Commission of Orange Presbytery. While over 51% of the membership of the Presbytery is female, the committee representation does not reflect this fact.

REPORT OF SINGLES TASK FORCE

Fannie Crumpler, chairperson, told the Presbytery of the work being done both at Presbytery level and in local churches providing ministry to singles. A booklet prepared by the Task Force suggesting different methods of ministering to the singles within a congregation was distributed to members of the court.

MISSIONARY ITINERATION

Katherine Vincent, coordinator of Missionary Itineration, provided information on the missionaries who are available to local churches during our Witness Season. She asked that churches contact her early and respond to the request to churches to select a date and missionary speaker for this season.
